

Dear Herzbergs,

Words cannot describe how thankful I am for your son. He showed great courage by serving for our country. I am beyond grateful you've shared his story to the world & I've gotten to learn about it. Eric's story has reminded me to never take advantage of anything. Your son has truly inspired me to live my life like his; to care for others, put others before myself, and be brave. So, thank you. Your son's story has touched many many people's hearts. I will hug my loved ones a little tighter. I could never imagine losing a loved one. He died not just a soldier, he died a hero.

♡ Sincerely,
