

Dear Herzberg Family,

I'm so sorry for your loss. I can't possibly comprehend the pain you've endured, but that pain wasn't for nothing. We live in the greatest nation on Earth thanks to your son's sacrifice. I will never forget our armed forces who protect us daily. They are some of the strongest people on the planet. I wish I could be brave & selfless like your son and until I breathe my last I will try. Your family is truly remarkable & not just because of your sacrifice but because of your love for Eric. You raised him to become the hero he was & still is. His legacy will live on in both your memories & the memories of those who have been touched by his story, not just as a marine but as a football player, a student, a friend and so much more because even more than your son's sacrifice, I value his courage & perseverance to achieve his goals. Thank you again for your son's amazing story,

Grace Chasco.
