

Dear Herzberg Family,

My name is Kiley Jackson, this year as a 8th grader I have had the privilege of hearing your sons story. I am greatful that your son chose to fight for our country. Having a current Marine in my family, your sons story has touched my heart and hit home. My brother, Sargent Walter Jackson has been in the Marines since he was 18. He is now 24 and walter reminds me so much of your son. They both have seemed to touch so many. In our world so many don't understand what the military does for us. Many risk their lives everyday to ensure our safty. I would like to say i'm sorry for your loss. Also I would like to say thank you for introducing us to the movie "Taking Chance." something was said in the movie that was touching, and reminds me of your son Eric.

"If there were more men like him, there would be no more wars."

Thank you for reading this.

wishing you the best,

Kiley Jackson
