Dear Herzburg Family,

Your sons story is so heartfelt and inspiring, and reminds me to be grateful for our army. Eric Herzburg jr. was a brave, kind, caring and inspiring person. He always tried his best and was respectful to all. I aspire to one day be as brave and as caring and as ambitious as Eric. Eric's selflessness has made it possible for me to do all the things I love. Golfing, hiking, swimming, boating, skiing, hanging out with my friends and family, and so much more wouldn't be possible without your sons impact. He has impacted so many people and made so much possible. Your son is a true hero and I'm eternally grateful for his sacrifices. I pledge to dedicate my respects to the U.S military and to never forget Eric Herzburg, a true hero. I am so sorry for your loss, he lives in our hearts.

Sincerely,

Lily Knowlton
