

Dear Herzberg Family

Nearly 16 years after the tragic loss of your son Eric, the United States and MSMS still mourns and remembers your brave and patriotic son who gave his life to our country. Although I will never be able to meet Eric, it is mine and Mona Shores' goal to help keep his memory and legacy alive. Eric's sacrifice will never be in vain. He gave the ultimate sacrifice to help ensure the people of the United States could lay their heads on their pillows and sleep, knowing we are safer because of the selflessness of the brave men and women in our military. Students like me at MSMS want to do whatever we can to show that even though our fallen heroes may no longer be with us on Earth, they are still in our hearts and memories. Thank you for continuing to share Eric's story, a story of our fallen hero Eric Herzberg Jr.

With A Proudful Heart,
Lucas Grigg
