

Dear Herzberg family,

Your son seems like the type of person who made the world a better place, and that's without even knowing him. I know for a fact that he has impacted many more lives than you can count. All of them grateful for what he has done not just for our country, but also what he has done for each of us. Learning about heroes like your son, makes all of us realize how lucky we are, and how much we should cherish every moment we spend with the ones we love. Your son touched the lives of many, and I am truly sorry for your loss.

Sincerely,

Madeline Eckerman
