

Dear Herzberg Family,

4/17/13

I am extremely sorry for your loss. Words can't even describe how painful it is to lose someone over seas. I can only imagine how hard it is for you. Your son's story made me realize how lucky we are that there are people like him in the world. If only there were more. Our country wouldn't be the same without people like your son. When I heard your son's story, my initial thought was "bravery". I didn't know Eric, but I sure wish I would have. He is so inspiring. I want to thank you and tell you how greatly his story has affected us at Mona Shores. Thank you.

With love and appreciation,
Marissa Fletcher.
