

Dear Herzberg family,

As a middle schooler from a small(ish) town in America, war + death is foreign + unknown subject for me. Listening to Eric's story and watching Taking Chance was truly impacting and shocked me. The sympathy and sorrow I feel for you is beyond words. I wish my freedom didn't come at such a high price. What impressed me though, was your ability to take such a horrible event and turn it into something positive. Your bravery and wish to spread the knowledge of KIA soldiers is amazing. If your goal was to educate + impact us, then you have gone above and beyond. Thank you for Eric, and thank you for being strong.

Sincerely,
Megan
