

Dear Herzberg Family,

I may not have known your son, but I know after learning about him and his story he was an incredibly amazing and brave man. After viewing the movie 'Taking Chance' in class these past few days, my eyes have been again opened to what courage and pride it would take to serve our country the way he did. He is truly an inspiration to me, my family, and friends at Mona Shores. I'm so sorry for your loss and I hope this gives you comfort.

Sincerely,
Lauren Davis
