

Dear Hertzberg family,

I'm sorry for your loss. Although it is really sad to hear about your loved one I admire what you do. You capture him and his story in such a way that I can't help but smile. The way you speak of him shows how much he is loved. The way you continue his legacy shows your pride in what he has done. Even though I do not know Eric I feel like I do. I've grown to not only admire your way of continuing his story, but to admire him as the kind hearted, family man that he is.

~Olivia Hunt~