

Eric W. Herzberg's Family,

I know that you've probably heard the words, "I'm sorry for your loss" plenty of times. Well, I am sorry for your loss, but also for other people's losses. I'm sorry that people didn't get to know him better. I'm sorry that he was taken away before he could meet new people, and make new friends that will now never know him. I'm sorry that he died really before he had much of a chance to live. You've made his memory continue on in all of the students at Mona Shores. He will always be remembered.

- Cienna Billingsley

