

Dear Herzberg Family,

I recently learned about your son, Eric. I am so very sorry and can't even begin to imagine what you've been through. ♡

The 8th grade class here at Mona Shores Middle School took the time to watch the movie "Taking Chance." I am so grateful for the people like your son who fight for others who can't. He will forever be in our hearts with love and kindness. ♡

Sending love,
Mia Geoghan
