

5/18/16

Dear Herzberg Family,

My name is Ramnit Saini. I won't be seeing you and your son at Arlington, but we just watched Taking Chance, and it is really sad to see what your family must have gone through. Without people like your son our country wouldn't be where it is today.

I am very sorry for your loss and with what I have read about Eric from his website, I know that it was a true loss for your son to pass. Eric was a hero and I am grateful that I learned about him.

Even though nothing can bring your son back, I hope you can get comfort in knowing that his memory & story will never be forgotten. - Ramnit Saini