

Dear Herzberg Family,

I know that your son Eric, has touched many, many lives. He gave his life for his country. I bet you are so proud of him. Your son sounded like a great person. I'm so sorry for your loss and I know you miss him everyday. My uncle was also in the military for over 15 years. I've seen pictures of him while he was deployed in Iraq and it breaks my heart that your son was in a place similar to my uncle. Eric will never be forgotten and I am so grateful that I get to visit Arlington and see where he is buried. Just remember that your son was a hero and has touched many lives here at Mona Shores Middle School and all over the country. Eric will never be forgotten and never stopped being loved. Your family our in our thoughts and prayers.

From,

Sarah Roman

p.s. My uncle was also a Marine, his name is Ron.
