

To the family of Eric Herzberg,

I am truly sorry for the loss of your son. My cousin just got deployed a month or two ago, and I can't imagine what I would do if I lost him. It is perplexing to me that someone can be here one minute, then gone the next. From what I have learned about your son Eric, I can tell that he was an amazing man with incredible parents. He would be very astonished to see what you have done to keep his memory alive. I really wish I would have gotten to meet + thank him before he passed. Thank you for raising a true hero.

Sincerely,

Sydney
