

Dear Herzberg Family,

I know how hard it is to go through losing somebody. It really impacted me because it got to me when I saw how scary and hard it is to stay strong. I to have lost someone that was a marine. After seeing the movie 'Taking Chance', it hit me, and really showed me the effect of losing somebody. Eric W. Herzberg was a true hero. He put his self in danger to save the lives of others. I am truly sorry for your loss.

Just remember that you guys raised a respectful man. I myself am respectful for your son, Eric W. Herzberg. He fought for our freedom. Knowing what he has done, I now will remember him for life. I'm glad to atleast know he is being remembered by thousands. It may be hard, but keep staying strong. I am thankful for Eric W. Herzberg and for our freedom.

Love,

Tippinie Miles
